$100 IS PRIZE TO BE GIVEN

The National Municipal League has announced the "William H. Baldwin Prize for 1928." This prize is in commemoration of the late president of the Long Island Railroad company, a man who was greatly interested in rendering public service and in promoting fair business dealings. A prize of $100 will be given to the author of the best essay on a subject connected with municipal government. The contest is open to undergraduate students registered in a regular course in any college or university in the United States which offers direct instruction in municipal government.

Two U. of K. Students Win in Vocal Contests

Miss La Una Ramsey and Ray Mayes Are Winners in Atwater-Kent Contest

Two university students, Miss La Una Ramsey and Ray Mayes, were selected as having the best voices in the Atwater-Kent contest which was held last Friday night in the Senior High school auditorium.

Miss Ramsey, a senior in the university, has a rich alto voice, although she sang a soprano aria. She is a member of Phi Beta musical society, and sings in the choir of the Calvary Baptist church. Miss Ramsey took part in "Trial by Jury," presented by the women's glee club last year.

Mr. Mayes is a freshman in the College of Engineering and has a baritone voice. He is a vocal student of Mr. Jarman, of the Central Christian church choir. Mr. Mayes won the interscholastic vocal contest held here April 16.

Judges in the contest were Prof. Rouse Rigby, Berea College, Margaret Smith, supervisor of music at the public schools of Winchester, and Miss Anna W. James, teacher of music at Margaret Hall, Versailles.

CALL FOR PROOFS

The business manager of the Kentucky Kernel announces that all students must call for proofs of their pictures not later than tomorrow at the Kentucky office on the second floor of the armory. The Kentucky staff will pick the pictures to be run in the annual of all students who fail to make their selection before tomorrow.

Plan Mammoth Pep Meeting And Theater Rally Tonight

Students Will Gather in Gym at 7:30; Will March to Kentucky Theater for Another Meet

SUKY TO GET PERCENTAGE

Theater Management Prepares Parody, Novelties in Special Program for Students

"The biggest pep meeting—the biggest rally—the biggest time ever." Such is the motto of Suky circle for the pep meeting in the gym tonight at 7:30 o'clock followed by the mammoth rally at the Kentucky theater. Committees of Suky circle have been hard at work all week preparing for the two events and present indications are that to miss the fun tonight will be worse than having indigestion on Thanksgiving day.

The fireworks are scheduled to start promptly at 7:30 o'clock when cheerleader Johnnie Jewell and his cohorts start warming up the vocal mechanism of the student body. Professors Lampert and Sulzer have promised to take care of the musical part of the bill while Coach Gamage will be on hand to deliver a few words of encouragement in his usual optimistic manner.

After a general warming up in the gym the whole assemblage will head toward the Kentucky theater. Drum-major Waller Jones and his eighty-two piece band, all in uniforms, will lead the way. It is expected that practically the whole student body will be in the parade.

Cheers and songs by the glee club

Initial Appearance of "Letters" to Be Soon

Subscription Rate Is Dollar for Four Issues; Will Be Mailed to Subscribers

The first issue of "Letters," literary magazine edited by students and professors of the university, will appear early in November, according to an announcement made this week by Professor Farquhar, editor of the publication.

Prof. E. F. Farquhar, editor-in-chief, is assisted by Joe Palmer, Joe Lee Davis, and Herbert Lukens. The magazine is sponsored by the departments of English and Journalism and by The Kentucky Kernel, and is a quarterly "whose pages are to comprehend the best literary output of this state."

Subscription to "Letters" is $1 a year and may be made through any professor of English or Journalism. The sponsors hope that a large number of students and faculty members will subscribe before the first issue. The magazine will appear quarterly and will be mailed to any address given by subscribers.

The university has long felt the need of a comprehensive literary publication, but until lately no attempts have been made for its materialization. At last it has become a reality.

Frosh Football Player Recovers From Injury

Ben Martin, of Denver, Col., a player on the freshman football team, who was injured in a scrimmage, October 13, has fully recovered and is able to be out. When Martin's neck was first examined by Dr. J. E. Rush at the university dispensary, it was not thought to be serious, but when it continued to give him pain he was removed to the Good Samaritan hospital for further treatment. At the hospital Martin's neck was placed in a cast and he had recovered sufficiently to be discharged Monday.

Frosh and Sophs Had Lots of Fun; Crowd Still Wondering Who Won

Freshman Class Outnumbers Foes; Sophomores Grab Hold of Hose; Mud Adds Much to Fighters' Woes; Water Drips From All Their Clothes; First Year Men Take in the Shows

(By Alfred R. Robertson) The gentle rain, so 'tis said, falleth alike on the just and the unjust, so did the water from the two fire hose at the soph-frosh tug-of-war last Friday afternoon. Everybody got wet, no lives were lost, the shows were rushed afterward, and a good time was had by all.

Pray do not ask me who won the little embroglio. How should I know? Or anybody else? The freshmen think they won, the sophomores think they should have won, and the upper classmen say, "No contest." The uncertainty arises out of having no effective means of calling fouls.

The Student Council and the advanced R. O. T. C. had offered to police the party and see that everything was done properly. But the council had neglected to borrow the Lexington police force and the army had left their bayonets at home. Hence, with some four hundred freshmen to cope with the sophs had about as much as chance as a pint of ice cream at a children's party.

Ninety-eight sophomores turned out to pull for the honor of dear old '30. In order to be generous the council allowed the frosh 110 on the other

ANNUAL FEATURES BEAUTY SECTION

Committee of New York Artists Will Select University's Most Beautiful Girls

MANY NOVEL FEATURES

Although the standard for originality and artistic designing has been mounting higher with the appearance of each year's annual, the Kentucky of 1928, under the editorship of Miss Dorothy Sellers, gives promise of advancing still another step.

The themes of this year's book will be the depicting of Civil War Scenes on the Southern side. Miss Joy Pride, art editor, will have charge of this work. She will be assisted by several nationally known commercial artists. The list of these artists has not yet been made.

An established feature of the Kentucky is the "Kentucky Beauty" section, which includes portraits of the most beautiful girls on the university campus. A committee of New York artists is now being selected to act as judges for this year's contest. Pictures will be submitted to the judges in three weeks.

There will be many other new features in the Kentucky for this year, but the editors refuse to disclose them. "For," in their words, "who wants to buy a book when one knows exactly what is in it beforehand?"

Doctor Crane Speaks to Student Body at Second Convocation

Dr. Henry Crane, well-known preacher and speaker, addressed the student body and faculty of the university at the second convocation of the year held Tuesday at 10 o'clock in the men's gymnasium.

Doctor Crane was brought to the University of Kentucky by the University Y. M. C. A.

Politicians Invade University Campus

Republicans Create Clubs to Offset Democratic Organization

A breakfast for the Republican party leaders was held in the Palm room of the Phoenix hotel last Friday in the interests of Judge Flem D. Sampson, candidate for governor. Mrs. John Langley, congresswoman, urged the workers to get the woman to go to the polls, Congresswoman Roberson, Sampson's campaign manager, spoke on the necessity of a complete poll at each precinct. Interesting and encouraging talks were given by Mrs. John D. Allen, King Swope, Tate Bird, Mrs. T. C. Quisenberry, and White Moss.

Representatives of the campus Sampson for Governor Club were present. This club has been organized for both men and women in the university. Thursday afternoon a meeting of this club was held in the private dining room of the Phoenix hotel. All those interested in the coming election and wishing to join the organization may inquire more fully into it at the temporary headquarters, the Tri Delta house.

Crippled Wildcats To Face W. and L. Generals Saturday

Students Fail to Call for Post Office Boxes; Many Letters Delayed

Many students have not yet called for their mail boxes at the university post office, according to Miss Carrie Bean, manager of the Campus Book store.

Considerable out-of-town mail is distributed through the university postoffice. In addition, all university notices, summons, etc., are sent to students in the same manner. If a student fails to appear when summoned the fact that he failed to get his notice is not accepted as an excuse. According to Miss Bean several students have notices at the present time.

To avoid the possibility of getting in trouble Miss Bean asks all students who have not already done so to call for their boxes at once.

Noise, Police, Et Cetera Disturb Sabbath Morn Slumber of Sorority

Like Postum, "There's a Reason" Why Male Callers Fail to Register at Maxwell Street House Sunday Afternoon; Sisters Show the Bad Effects of Lack of Sleep

A piercing scream rent the early morning Sabbath atmosphere, and the sleepy little birds fluttered about in the trees along Maxwell street for a longer distance than it is safe to confess. But the damage had been done and that was all there was to it—the "hull" house was in an uproar from house-mother to the sister Greeks.

You see it was this way—someone heard something, it doesn't matter what—but something. And with the announcement that "something had actually been heard" there was nothing to do but call the minions of the law to the place. It matters not that the sister who did this failed to give the correct house number or the "eastness" or "westness" of the street. The officers have ears, and they used them.

Cops Roar to Rescue Straight as winged the homing pigeon roared three husky cops, a plain clothesman and two reporters where calamity was "calaming" and pandemonium was "pandemoning," aided by some dozen sisters.

The house was surrounded before the inmates knew that the law had arrived. Order, which usually accom-

Blue and White's Second Conference Tilt Will Be Played on Stoll Field at 2:30 Tomorrow

LINE-UP IS UNCERTAIN

'Cats Will Do Best to Avenge 14-13 Defeat of Last Year

(By Kenneth Gregory)

The Generals of Washington and Lee will march forth to battle out on Stoll field tomorrow afternoon. Their enemy will not be an army of men but a fighting pack of Wildcats out to avenge a 14 to 13 defeat handed them by the Virginians last year. The game will start at 2:30 o'clock.

The Generals have a powerful machine this year and with the Wildcats snowed under by numerous injuries there is no telling how the score will be. It may be a question of how many points.

All told, the Blue and White squad is suffering injuries to eleven first string men. Paul Jenkins' ankle is still weak and the slightest twist may put him on the bench. Dees, Gibb, Covington, Lyons, Mohny, Miller, Stone, Idleman, Belt and Bickel are also on the ailing list. The above named could form an eleven that would just about equal anything seen on Stoll field, provided they were in tip top condition.

The question of the starting line-up for tomorrow's battle is a hard one to answer, as even Coach Harry Gam-

DISPLAY DESIGNS AT ART CENTER

Exhibit Consists of Modern Textiles of England, Holland, German and France; Forting Prints Included

DUFFY IS A CONTRIBUTOR

At the Art Center at the university a remarkable display of the modern textile designs of England, Holland, Germany and France is one exhibition. Loans from Elkin and Daniel, of Colony Court, and members of the Art Department who were in Europe during the past summer, form the bulk of the exhibition.

Colony Court contributed mainly Forting prints, recent copies of Italian designs of the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries. Many of the designs are of the conventional types so extensively used for draperies and wall decoration during that period and even in reproduction are rare.

In the display are a number of many colored hand-blocked silks and linens from Holland, France and Germany. Several designs by Raoul Duffy, the leading textile designer of France, are among them. Duffy, also known widely as a painter, pioneered France's recent trend in design.

ALUMNI AND THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Alumni of the University of Kentucky, like the alumni of many other state maintained universities, often lack interest in the workings of their alma mater. They know that the university is supported and maintained by the state and for this reason concentrate their interests in the athletic teams of the school and leave the other activities to the state and the officials. This is a condition that the alumni associations in a great many of the state supported schools are using every effort to correct.

The University of Kentucky is particularly unfortunate in having this condition exist to an alarming degree. Our alumni know too little of what their alma mater is doing off the football field. Our alumni, through ignorance, fail to render a service that would be invaluable to the university. The service in itself is a simple matter. Learn the needs of the university and then use your influence to help your school realize the needed assistance from its only source of income.

In a great many of the universities and colleges, not supported by the state, alumni are called on each year to help carry on the work of their alma maters. This we are not called upon to do. We are asked for no direct financial assistance. We can be instrumental in getting for our university the needed financial assistance if we organize and do a minimum of work. This service can be told in a very few words.

Within a few months the members of the General Assembly of Kentucky will meet in Frankfort to attend to the business of governing the State of Kentucky for the next two years. The general assembly will at this time make appropriations for the maintenance and expansion of all the state supported institutions, for two years. In November the men who will make up this general assembly will be elected. Each district will send its representatives and senators to Frankfort. These men know little of the University of Kentucky. They are not acquainted with the services that the university renders to Kentucky.

In the ten years just passed attendance at the University of Kentucky has grown until now it is approximately 2,500. It has more than doubled during this time. When the university opened in the fall of 1919 there were 1,200 students enrolled. The officials were pressed that year to make classroom space to take care of the youth of our state who sought higher education. This year with an enrollment of nearly 2,500 the same amount of classroom space is available. There has been no addition of classroom space during this time, with the exception of an addition to the Chemistry building. Young women students have been turned away time and time again because there was not sufficient dormitory space to take care of them.

These are but a few of the facts that alumni of the state should place before the members of the General Assembly of Kentucky before these men leave for Frankfort. Tell these men what the university is doing for Kentucky and explain that there will be more and more students each year who will seek education here at the university. Explain that if Kentucky cannot furnish these students with the proper training they may not be able to get it elsewhere.

Alumni in four of our neighboring states have aided the phenomenal growth and expansion of their universities. They attained their aim by organization and work, and only a little work at that. Ohio, Indiana, Michigan and West Virginia, with their universities, younger than ours are outdistancing us in their growth and expansion. We as Kentuckians cannot allow that. Meet your senator and your representative and get them to promise to support the university during the coming session of the legislature. A personal appeal will go a long way and cost you only a little time.

They Tell Me

William Henry Grady, B. M. E. 1905, M. E. 1918, is another who deserves a prominent place on our honor roll. He has been active in the association without missing a year since 1914. He is at present general superintendent of the American Cereosoting Company of Louisville. His address is 2318 Bonnycastle avenue.

Chaatin Wilson Haynes, B. S. 1905, returned to the association as an active member in 1925, after being inactive for almost ten years. Now that his permanent address is on our files it is probable that he will continue to be an active member from now on. Mr. Haynes is a fluospar mine operator and lives in Marion, Ky.

R. Taylor Harris, ex-24, is one of the large number of former students who put to shame all those graduates who fail to show the proper interest in their Alma Mater and the Alumni Association. He has been active in the association since he left the university. He is at present a farmer and lives in Nolan, W. Va.

W. Preston White, B. M. E. 1923, sent us a letter the other day in which he enclosed a check for his dues for 1927-28. He recently became special agent for the Northwestern Life Insurance Company and

'CHUCK' RICE MADE FRANKFORT COACH

Former Wildcat Star Will Have Charge of All Athletics at Capital High School

CAPTAINED BASKETEERS

A. T. (Chuck) Rice, Jr., A. B. 1925, has been made head coach and is in charge of all athletics of the Frankfort High school at Frankfort, Ky. Chuck hailed from Paris and was for several years a star performer on the University of Kentucky teams. He already has taken over his new charges and is putting them through their paces. He was coach at Sturgis last year and year before.

Chuck is well remembered by sport fans of the Blue Grass and of Kentucky as a basketball player who starred on the Wildcat teams for four years. Chuck started his career in the blue and white uniform in 1920, the year before the freshman rule became effective in the Southern conference, and played on the teams of the university until 1924.

In 1922 in recognition of his outstanding work on the football field, he was chosen all-Kentucky end by a unanimous vote and received honorable mention on the all-Southern team chosen that year. He was equally adept at shooting the ball through the hoop as he was at snagging forward passes and in 1924 captained the Wildcat team which won 13 out of 15 games.

For the past two years Chuck has been coach of all athletics at the Sturgis High school where he turned out teams which surprised many of their rivals by their unexpected strength. His track team at Sturgis won the western Kentucky interscholastic championship in 1925 and 1926 and placed third in the state meet both years. He attended the Kentucky coaching school this summer.

is at present located at 1226 Keith building, Cleveland, Ohio.

William Jay Schoene, B. S. Agr. 1905, is still another on the roll of honor. He has been active every year since before 1914. He is state entomologist for Virginia and lives in Blacksburg. He is married and has four children: Charles Audrey, 16; Sara Elizabeth, 16; Mary Margaret, 10, and William Jay, 6.

Sallyneil Wather, 1905 (Mrs. Scott Braden), is another who was inactive about ten years and returned last year as an active member and renewed her membership early this year. She is coordinator and science instructor in the Frank Wiggins Trade School of Los Angeles, Calif. Her residence address is Auditorium hotel, Los Angeles.

J. H. Bailey, B. M. E. 1920, is located in Chicago where he is an engineer with the Carrier Engineering Corporation. He sent us a letter a few days ago asking to be put on the records as an active member of the Alumni Association. His address is 1640 Pratt boulevard, Chicago.

E. V. Schultz, B. S. 1927, is an industrial chemist with the Koppers Company of Jersey City, N. J. He lives at 226 North Third street, Newark, N. J. Schultz began the right way by becoming a member of the association as soon as he graduated.

Edward P. Morris, B. S. M. E. 1926, is an erection engineer for the Coe Manufacturing Company of Painesville, Ohio. Morris let a year slip by without getting The Kernel but that was as long as he could stand it. He is on our list now and we intend to keep him there. He seems to be doing right well too.

JUDGE K. L. HIFNER DIES IN FLORIDA

Graduate of Class of 1887, One of Oldest U. K. Alumni, Succumbs After Heart Attack

WAS POPULAR CITIZEN

Judge Kerney Lee Hifner, who was graduated from the University with the degree of B. S. with the class of 1887, died at his home in Lake Worth, Fla., May 19, 1927, according to an account of his death which has just reached the alumni office. He was in apparent good health and his death came as a result of heart trouble. He was buried in Lake Worth and the funeral was conducted by the Masonic Order.

Judge Hifner was born in Jessamine county in 1864 and was 63 years old when he died. He lived for the greater part of his life in Kentucky and went to Florida in 1914. He moved to Lake Worth, building the first house in that town. He was for years in the contracting and building business. He was the first town clerk of Lake Worth, retiring at the expiration of his term of office. When a charter was granted to the town, creating the office of police judge, Judge Hifner was elected to that office, which he held until his death.

He was in apparent good health the day he died and had gone that morning into his fruit grove near his house. He suddenly became ill and was assisted to his house by farm hand. He died within a few minutes.

So popular was Judge Hifner that his death was mourned by the entire town of Lake Worth. He was one of the leading and most outstanding citizens of that town.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Annie Young Hifner, to whom he was married in Nicholasville, Ky., December 5, 1889; one brother, W. A. Hifner, and three sisters, Mrs. Mettie Gregson, Mrs. A. D. Woods and Mrs. Mamie O'Neal, all of Lexington.

He is beginning in the right manner and we look forward to his long and active membership in the association. His address is 210 East Twenty-third street.

THANKS, WESLEYAN

The Kernel wishes to both thank and compliment the student body of Kentucky Wesleyan for their sportsmanship Wednesday night of last week when the Flamingo, bearing the Wildcat football team southward for the Florida game, passed through Winchester.

It was too late to record the incident in the editorial columns of the paper last week, so The Kernel is taking this opportunity to thank the Wesleyan team, band, and student body for the songs, yells, and encouragement which they showered upon the Blue and White warriors in the few minutes the train laid over in Winchester.

The athletic and curricular relations between the university, Kentucky Wesleyan, and other institutions of the state have been especially pleasant this year, and The Kernel, speaking for the student body of the university, rejoices in the fact.

THE COLLEGE PRESS

In past years the college press has often been accused of being devoted exclusively to accounts of athletic events, social festivities and the like. As The Nation, in a recent editorial, points out, however, college papers throughout the country today are devoting considerable space and attention to the consideration of weightier matters. The Kernel takes pleasure in reprinting here with this editorial.

(Reprinted from The Nation)

We have been reading here and there in the undergraduate press of the country, and we have come to the conclusion that American students are outrageously de-famed. The current notion is that the rah-rah boys of twenty years ago has been succeeded by a creature with smooth hair who, to be sure, is crude no longer but who could actually afford to take on a little crudeness—could venture, for instance, to develop an enthusiastic interest in the affairs of the world. The current notion of the undergraduate is that he has brains but is too bored to use them. Having scanned the editorial pages of the Coe College Cosmos, the Yale News, the Duke University Chronicle, the University of Georgia Red and Black, the Rice Institute Thresher, and other student papers, we demur.

"Nourished on a steady diet of platitudes," the Coe College Cosmos assures its readers, "the student is fortunate if he possesses any mind at all." It is much to have recognized that most of what one hears, in college or out, is meaningless. The editors of the Cosmos have gone further than this, however; they have informed themselves, and they have thought about things until these things had meaning. They have taken the trouble to find out what is really going on in China. They have asked why Mr. Coolidge should send marines to Nicaragua, in the interest of order, and should not send them to Chicago. And they write:

Let us have done with this chatter about making war more pleasant, more humane. Let no effort be spared to make it as deadly and ghastly as possible.

Doubtless many college papers still fill all their space with nice nothings about local crises in social and athletic relations. But it is refreshing to see a number of dailies spreading over their front pages intelligent news articles about American foreign relations, the censorship of books, race prejudice, preparedness, the politics of Chicago, and recent developments in the world of science and of art. The Yale News, among all of the papers we have examined, goes farthest in the direction of grown-up journalism. Some of its contemporaries have as intelligent and critical an editorial page, but only a few can rival it for volume of significant news. And its editorials, which happen to be of a liberal cast, often have to be answered from off the campus. One of its pronouncements on the allied debt, for example, drew letters on the same day from Secretary Mellon and the Wall Street Journal.

WHO WON?

Since last Friday afternoon when the annual freshman-sophomore tug-of-war ended in a general free-for-all, the paramount question on the campus has been "Who won?" From present indications the question will be one of endless dispute and like the Shakespearean-Bacon controversy will be argued pro and con for many years.

It is a lamentable fact that at the University of Kentucky it seems impossible to conduct a contest like the annual tug-of-war in an absolutely fair manner. Perhaps it is just human nature to slip a little and not play exactly according to the rules when one is losing—and perhaps it was this weakness of human nature that caused a number of extra freshmen to jump to the aid of their fellow-classesmen and which caused the sophomores to throw down the cable, grab a hose, and begin to sprinkle their opponents.

There is no doubt that the tug-of-war this year furnished an exceedingly large amount of amusement for both spectators and participants. It is equally certain that the manner in which the contest was held this year is vastly superior to that of former years when Clifton pond was pressed into service and when there was always the possibility that someone might drown or become seriously ill as a result.

But neither the enjoyment furnished nor the superiority of this method over the old, is sufficient to overcome the fact that the contest was not carried out according to the rules. If the rules are wrong, change them. But as long as these rules are in force it is The Kernel's opinion that both classes should have played the game according to the rules.

So in answer to the question which is sweeping the campus, "Who won?" The Kernel is obliged to say "no one"—no contest.

WAILS OF THE WEEK

Faith, Hope and Charity certainly have their place in the senior's life. Faith in everything in general, hope that he won't flunk and charity on the part of the faculty.

Have you heard the heart-rending story of the girl who crammed until 2 a. m. for a quiz and then slept through the class?

RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED TO THE SUKY DANCE

Alas my love! Alas my love!
To the dance we cannot go.
My check from home has not arrived,

PRIZE OFFER

One genuine bale of campus grown hay will be given to the idiot who will announce at a freshman convocation that the sophomores won the tug-of-war.

CONCERT

Masanet's Elegie

Music that tears at the guts of the soul.
The song of the White Worn—and the song of men aghast.
The song of fear eternal—and of eternal lust.
The song of the fear of man—and the lust of Blind Jehovah.

Paderewski's Minuet

Multi-colored melted jewels dripping from white fingertips.
Mottled sunbeams glancing off a sea-wave's swelling breast.
Silver-sandaled seraphim dancing on a harpsichord.

A TREE OUTSIDE MY BEDROOM WINDOW

There is a tree outside my bedroom window
A plain and unpretentious tree.
Tall—it towers beside my bedroom window
This solitary, quiet tree.
Its leaves are tinted by the autumn frosts
Till browned and seared they show—
Its boughs are bent and marred and broken,
One droops against my window, low.

This tree in summer shades my bedroom window
This tree in winter hangs with snow,
And yet, until to-day, I had not noticed
That this tree had any soul.
The rising sun outside my bedroom window
Shone full and strong upon that tree
And made of it, with all its golden glory
A thing of beauty, just for me.

Some people are like that, they live beside us
Quiet and unpretentious, too,
As we strive blindly in pursuit of pleasure
We fail to know that they strive, too.
And then one day, there comes an understanding
A purpose or some tasks that call
Light up the inner spirit of their being
So their true worth is shown to all.
—N. F. R.

WINE

Like some gold-lusting miser I look through Carved thinness of transparent glass to see How drunken lamplight gropes its way into
The somber prison of wine's subtlety.

The fancy comes
That I drink down the blood of old, old memories,
Drowned in the ruddy wisdom of strong wine.
But in the gray, wan river of tomorrow
I shall meet them, rearsen to the light,
And we shall drift together down the sorrow
Of another day, into another night. —N. G. A.

PREVIEWS OF LOCAL SHOWS

STRAND THEATER

"THE COLLEGIANS"

In addition to the regular feature playing now at the Strand Theater is one of the most brilliant short features ever produced. Carl Laemmle, Jr., is the author of "The Collegians," a Junior Jewell Production depicting student life in a co-educational school. Vibrant with excitement and flaming with young love and hilarious fun, this is a picture to make the blood tingle and the pulse leap.

George Lewis, who made a sensational hit as the juvenile in "His People," and followed it by playing a featured role with Pauline Frederick in "Devil's Island," plays the lead in this two-reel gem.

Playing opposite Lewis is Dorothy Gulliver, the Salt Lake City winner of Carl Laemmle's beauty contest of last year, who has made dizzying strides on the screen.

"THE CAT AND THE CANARY"

The "Cat and the Canary," a Universal-Jewell, which opens at Strand Theater Sunday a love theme of absorbing interest, interwoven with the thread of drama on a background of intrigue, mystery and serio-comedy, has been transferred to the celluloid by the genius of Paul Leni.

An all-star cast supports Laura La Plante, the petite blonde who has flashed across the cinematic heavens as a star of the first magnitude.

Throughout the action of the photodrama runs the age-old story of love, the lure of money, thwarted desires and human passions. Down to the very last foot of film you will be setting on edge awaiting the startling denouement.

The elements of comedy, which, paradoxically enough, often tinge the starkest tragedy, are by no means neglected, serving but to augment the intensely dramatic sequences. The lighter moments are played up to their fullest possibilities by Creighton Hale, Flora Finch and Gertrude Astor.

Arthur Edmund Carew, Tully Marshall, Forrest Stanley, Lucien Littlefield, George Siegman and Martha Mattox, in the featured supporting roles, give sterling performances in this screen adaptation of the outstanding stage success from the imaginative pen of John Willard.

KENTUCKY THEATER

"DANCE MAGIC"

Isabel Elson, tall, blonde actress from the London stage, makes her American screen debut in "Dance Magic," featuring Ben Lyon and Pauline Starke, at the Kentucky Theater this week end.

Miss Elson came to New York with the original London cast of "The Ghost Train," in which show she caught the eye of Leland Hayward, production manager for the First National United in charge of Robert Kane.

Miss Elson plays the role of Selma Buddy in "Dance Magic," the rejected sweetheart of a musical comedy producer, who shoots him when she learns he is about to give his love to another dancer, played by Pauline Starke. Louis John Bartels plays the producer.

University students will gather at the Kentucky tonight following the pep meeting to hold a football rally. A special program has been arranged.

"WHEN A MAN LOVES"

"When a Man Loves," Warner Bros. special extended-run production, starring John Barrymore, supported by Dolores Costello and a large and notable cast, comes to the Kentucky Theater next Sunday.

This is the tremendous screen version of Abbe Prevost's immortal story of love and terror in the days when Louis XV ruled in France.

The costumes are replicas of originals loaned by the French government on Warner Bros. $24,000 bond. Historically correct settings of ancient Paris, the King's court at Versailles, streets, pastoral scenes and sequences on the prison ship, and during the mutiny of the crew, and many others, are marvels of photography. Alan Crosland, who was responsible for "Don Juan" directed.

BEN ALI THEATER

"RICH BUT HONEST"

Nancy Nash, the pert Florine in Fox Films version of "Rich But Honest," believes in realism in her work. When she found that she had to win a cup in a dancing contest doing the Black Bottom and the latest "flapper" dances, she said nothing, but went to the most modern dancing teacher she could find.

As a result, the contest in the big dance hall scene is a contest, indeed, with Miss Nash a real cup-winner instead of just a make-believe one.

"Rich But Honest" is the third picture for Fox Films in which Miss Nash has played a featured part since entering pictures. Clifford Holland, another newcomer, and Charles Morton play the poor boy and the rich boy, respectively. J. Farrell MacDonald, Tyler Brooke, Marjorie Beebe, Doris Lloyd, Ted McNamara and Eerie Shields complete the cast.

Albert Ray is directing the production which is coming to the Ben Ali Theater next Monday for three days.

Three acts of vodvil will also be presented.

WILDCATS LOSE IN FIRST CONFERENCE TILT

FLORIDA 'GATORS ANNEX GAME BY 27 TO 6

(By John W. Dundon, Jr.)

Kentucky's Wildcat football aggregation, playing their initial game in the Southern Conference, was defeated last Saturday by the Florida 'Gators, at Fairfield stadium, Jacksonville. The final count stood, Florida 27, Kentucky 6.

The Blue and White team was hampered by all kinds and sorts of difficulties. In the first place, they were not used to the atmosphere in 'Gatorland, and in second place, many of the regular players were out due to injuries.

Florida had the edge in all departments of the game. They possessed a hard-driving, powerful and weighty machine, and were top-heavy favorites before the game. At that, the Blue held them to a 7-6 score at the half, and if they had made good a second attempt in the third quarter, the tale might have had an entirely different ending.

Kentucky annexed seven downs to six for the Florida aggregation in the first half. However, the driving 'Gator offensive worked to perfection in the last half, and they ran up a total of 17 first downs to the Kentuckians' 11. All of this occurred with the Wildcats' most effective line-backers, Gibb and Miller, out of the game. Dees, another power on the defensive was out with a sprained shoulder.

Kentucky scored their only points in the second quarter. As the first quarter ended, the ball was in Florida's possession on their 3 yard line. Bowyer punted out of bounds on his own 27 yard line. Portwood gained a yard and Jenkins made 3 yards off left tackle. Jenkins passed to Lyons, Smith interfering and the ball was given to the Blue on the 17-yard line. Ford gained a yard through center. Portwood hit the same spot for a 9 yard gain, and a first down. Portwood gained 2 yards at right guard. Jenkins then smashed the center of the line for a touchdown. Portwood tried a pass for the extra point, but it failed. Kentucky made another attempt in the first half, but it was stopped when Middlekauf, 'Gator full-back, intercepted one of Jenkins' passes on Florida's 20-yard line.

Portwood, Jenkins and Drury were the outstanding players for the Blue and White. More than once Drury got through to smear a 'Gator back. Portwood was the only Wildcat able to gain through Florida's powerful line.

Cross-Country Sport

Is Renewed; Eleven Men Report for Training

All who are interested in cross-country, and who would like to try out for the sport are urged to report immediately to Ray Bowser at the gymnasium. Several of the candidates have been working for more than two weeks, and are getting in fair shape for approaching meets.

There will be two meets this year for the harriers. One will be a dual meet, probably with Berea, while the other will be the Southern Conference meet at Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

An intra-mural meet is to be held some time this fall, probably between halves at the first freshman football game of the year.

Quite a few freshmen are out, and it is hoped that others will report. Cross-country is the best possible training for track, especially for those specializing in the long distance runs. Those who are out for cross-country are: Davidson, Dohrman, Elliott, Hearin, Johnson, Owens, Harris, McChesney, Cochran, Rhodemeyer, and Bird.

LAW COLLEGE GROWS

The College of Law has reported an enrollment of 127 students this year as compared with 106 last year. This is an increase of 16 per cent in the registration since this time last year.

Plans are being made to increase the courses offered in summer school by the addition of a course known as the "Law of Oil and Gas." This subject, which has never been offered before by the university will be of particular interest to Kentuckians.

On account of the increased enrollment in the Law College the faculty hopes to obtain permission to keep the law library open Saturday evening in order to facilitate the students in their legal reference work.

To Revive Wrestling

Sport Will Start Two Weeks After Thanksgiving

Wrestling, as a sport, is to be renewed at the university after several years of inactivity in the mat game. However, according to Coach Bernie Shively, there will be no meets with teams representing other colleges this season.

The main purpose for having wrestling this year is for the development of football men. Coach Shively says that wrestling will not only make them stronger, but it will make them much quicker. The mat sport will start two weeks after Thanksgiving and will continue until spring football practice is started. Next year it is planned to make wrestling one of the regular sports, and to have meets with other colleges.

There is to be an intra-mural wrestling tournament, the date of which will be announced later.

HEATHIZATION

GOOD FLAVOR

You enjoy the refreshing delight of ice cream, but you like best that ice cream which combines with creamy richness and smooth texture the delicate and pronounced flavors of the fruits with which it is made.

We make our ice cream by the HEATH method, a scientific improvement on all other ways of making ice cream, for two reasons. Firstly, it is a safeguard of purity. Our ice cream is made in freezers from which the air has been expelled and replaced by a sterile, pure, clean atmosphere. The second reason is that Heathization intensifies the flavors, increases the creamy, velvety texture of the ice cream and makes it smoother and more delicious.

You will enjoy our ice cream more than any you have ever tasted because of these added features which are our exclusive right in this city.

Our ice cream is sold only by our duly appointed agencies. Insure getting the best and purest ice cream by buying it where you see our sign.

Twenty Candidates Greet Coach Johnny Mauer at First Net Session

MAY OPEN SEASON WITH CLEMSON DECEMBER 16

(By Bill Reep)

Twenty men greeted Coach "Johnny" Mauer last Monday evening when the first basketball practice of the year was held in the men's gymnasium.

The majority of the men were from last year's freshman team which "cut" such a prominent figure in basketball circles. Ropke was the only regular from the Cat team last year who was in uniform. The men from the freshman team last year who were out in uniform were: McBrayer, Milward, Combs, Sisk, Owens, Williams, Myers and Torok. There are a few men yet to answer the call. They are football men and their services will not be available until the season closes after Thanksgiving. They are Captain Jenkins, Dees, Mohny, Lyons, Gibb and Phipps. All except Lyons were varsity men last year, Lyons playing on the freshman team.

Practice is being held every Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights and will continue until the football season is finished, then the aspirants will get down to business every night. Coach Mauer was somewhat surprised when he discovered how little the men seemed to know concerning the fundamentals of the game. He at once started the men in on that branch of the game, beginning with the art of the long shot and using the short arm pass. Coach Mauer thinks that his material is fair but believes that there is a lot of work yet to be done.

His style of play is very much different from that which they are accustomed to with this new system. They will be slow in starting. He does not expect to have a wonderful team this year as so many of the fall veterans of the Blue and White expect the "Wildcats" to have and he does not very seriously if they win the first two or three games. By the middle of January Coach Mauer thinks that he will have a fair team, one that works as a unit, which is one point he particularly stresses.

With his style of play there is little danger of one man becoming the scoring of the team, because in his method the scoring plays are so arranged that they will give each man an equal chance to contribute to the scoring.

The men have shown a willingness to work which is of course what Coach Mauer expects and demands, but as he said, "There is much work to be accomplished before the team will make a creditable showing."

Negotiations for a game with Clemson College are now under way and if it is arranged they will play here on December 16th. "Daddy" Boles is also trying to arrange another game here for December 20th.

Kappa — "And what did you discover about your family tree?"

Sigma — "I found that it was of the nut bearing variety."

We read the other day that they picked up Ruth Elder off the Bay of Biscay. It seems that women are being picked up anywhere these days.

Mexican Youth Wins Oratorical Contest

Revision of Monroe Doctrine Is Subject of Fiery Plea; Wants American League

Washington, Oct. 15.—With a fiery and impassioned address, typical of his race and spoken in Spanish, 19-year-old Arturo Garcia-Ferment, of Mexico City, captured the international oratorical contest from three other young men and a girl representing four other countries.

Young Ferment made a plea for a revision of the Monroe Doctrine, an American League of Nations, and a better understanding among the countries of the two American hemispheres. Scoring the placid delivery of his competitors and their calm elucidation of national accomplishments, the young Mexican let loose a torrent of words, punctuated by free-moving gesticulations, and during his oration abandoned restraint, walking rapidly about the stage as he spoke.

The contest was a victory for foreign languages. Georges Guio-Guilain, of France, with a fervent exposition in French of his native country's culture, took second place.

The contest was held at Washington Auditorium last night before an assemblage, including many diplomatic representatives and government officials.

Miss Dorothy Carlson, 17-year-old Salt Lake City, Utah, high school senior, who represented the United States and who spoke on the meaning of the American constitution, took fourth place.

BUTLER UNIVERSITY RECEIVES LARGE GIFTS FROM DIRECTOR

Arthur Jordan, a member of the board of directors of Butler University, increased his gifts to the university to $1,000,000 on September 10 when he gave the institution the sum of $625,000. This fund will enable the university officials to plan for additional buildings at Fairview. The unit of three buildings which is now under construction will now be known as the Arthur Jordan unit, according to an announcement made by J. W. Atherton, financial secretary, at the time Mr. Jordan's gift was made public.

Coach Major's First Termers Do Not Give Impressive Showings in Early Sessions

CUBS HAVE FAST ELEVEN

(By Herman Sharp)

With only a week before the Georgetown freshman tilt, the Kentucky Kittens, proteges of Coach Major, are being rounded into shape by a rigorous method of training and preparation to avenge for the last two consecutive defeats, and by doing so, place themselves in a better position to win the state championship. The game will be played at Georgetown, Friday, October 28.

The condition of the team as a whole, is not very favorable. There is no means of giving a fair estimate of the line value because of the fact that it has been playing on the offensive most of the time against the varsity. However, despite Coach Major's contentions that no outstanding qualities have shown up yet, he believes that a few more days of intensive practice will make the team very efficient, provided, of course, no injuries mar its chances. The backfield is fast and dependable only to a limited degree.

Their previous showings against the varsity have been fair at times, while at other times not so good. Some of the trick plays work well while others are completely broken up, and for this reason, the Kittens will have to make every play count to emerge victorious over the fast and heavy Georgetown aggregation which holds the state title. The line will average about 168 pounds and the backfield about 155, which averaged together will produce a team of low average weight.

The outcome of the first game, if a victory, will mean a great deal as the Kittens have not defeated the Georgetown Cubs since 1924, when they completely overwhelmed them by a 32 to 0 victory. Their showing in this game will also determine their chances against the Vanderbilt, West Virginia, Tennessee and Centre elevens, who from reports are in perfect condition to withstand well trained oncomers.

It is too early yet to estimate a probable lineup, but the prospects for a formidable team are not altogether lacking and everybody at Kentucky is hoping that this is not unfounded.

RELIGIOUS DISCUSSION

(By F. G. Coffin)

JESUS CHRIST, CREATOR

The mystery of Christ enlarges with every new angle of vision. Truly He is All, and in all. Because of His greatness it has been difficult for men to comprehend Him fully. Some have therefore discerned but one phase of Him and thought that was He. He is the unique personality in all history.

Along two avenues men have sought His origination—one from all eternity and the other beginning with the days of His flesh. The misfortune has been that some of those who traveled each of these ways were exclusivists. Some doubted His humanity, others His divinity. Because of no parallels in experience and the close horizons of all human reasoning, some said He could not have stooped to be human; others thought it was impossible for one in the flesh to be divine. Both forgot that God has no impossibilities within the province of His will. In Christ's great personality and mission neither of these qualities can be understood if dissociated from the other. Exclusive theological definitions have not a few times beclouded the purpose of both

Going Bareheaded Is Menace to Life

Former Health Officer Claims Hatlessness Is Danger With No Benefits

Fulton, N. Y.—Dr. Royal S. Copeland, United States senator from New York, comments on the fad adopted by students and others of going bareheaded, saying in the Evening Gazette:

"In summer weather the heat rays are so powerful that the brain may be seriously affected by them if the head is unprotected. In my old hospital days I used to see any number of cases of sunstroke, but I am confident that it was the heat rays and not the chemical rays which did the harm.

"It must be borne in mind that the actinic rays are just about as active in cold weather as in hot days of summer. If they were to be feared in the heated season, they would be almost as much to be dreaded all the year around.

"Some folks go without hats because they think the sunlight will stimulate the growth of the hair. About all it does to the hair is to fade it.

"Baldness is due, in most instances at least, to poor circulation. The heart does not send the blood in forceful streams to the most distant parts of the body. The hands and feet are cold, and the blood vessels are pressed upon and the feeble blood current is cut off, almost entirely.

"You may wear a hat in safety if your dealer will permit you to select a light one of ample size. Having purchased it, don't pull it down on your head as if you were a pickpocket under pursuit."

"OUR PIONEERING WORK HAS JUST BEGUN"

A Letter From the President

There are three things I am bringing to the attention of the student body through the columns of The Kernel this week. One is the automobile situation, the second the appearance of the campus and the third smoking in buildings.

The automobile situation has been improved over last year, but there is room for betterment. In order to give cars definite space for parking it is necessary to have registration of cars. The 280 cars parked on the campus every day are a problem. Where to locate them is a puzzling matter and the owners can assist the University officers. Cards will be distributed in the near future and the cooperation of car operators is asked.

More paper and rubbish have been thrown on the campus than is customary at this time of the year. Students and faculty members are asked to remedy this condition. Thoughtfulness will help.

Smoking in halls and recitation rooms is forbidden by university regulations. In addition insurance requirements are against the use of buildings for such a purpose. It is in fact dangerous to university property. Students are therefore urged not to smoke in the halls and entrances of university buildings. This is a matter of importance involving possible danger to life and property in case of fire.

DANCE HELD AFTER GAME

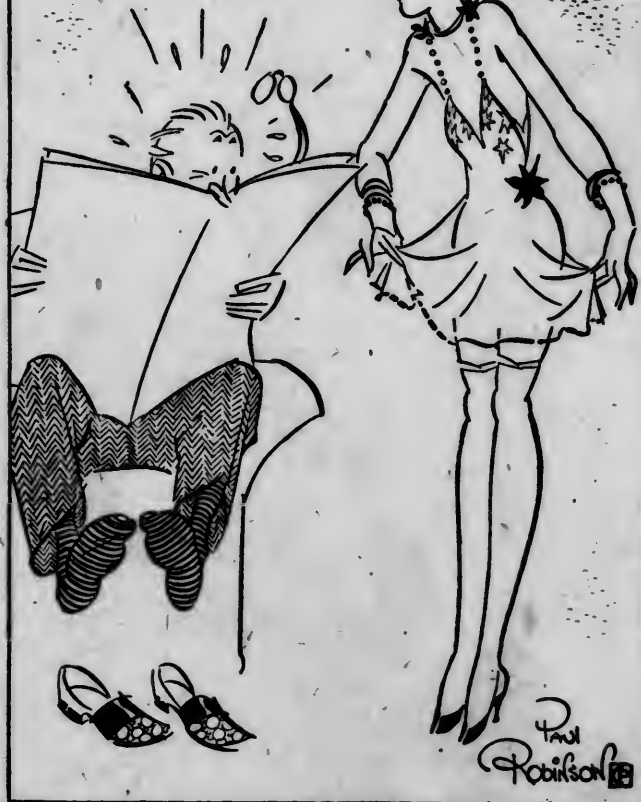

The R. O. T. C. unit will go to Danville on Saturday, November 19, for the Kentucky-Centre game, if present plans of members of the advanced course materialize. Papers are being given to all the military companies to sign, and a large number have already expressed their desire to go, according to Cadet Colonel J. J. Richardson.

A special train will carry the cadets to Danville, leaving here about 11:30 a. m., and will arrive in Danville about 12:30 p. m. A train will be run to Lexington about 12:00 o'clock Saturday night, in order that those who wish to, may stay over for the dance given at the Centre College gymnasium. Those not desiring to attend the dance may return on the scheduled train, which leaves Danville soon after the game. Round trip tickets are $1.50, and admission to the game $2.00.

The band and the regiment will form at the station in Danville, and, taking the shortest route will parade to the stadium. Uniforms may be discarded after the game. Practically all the cadets of the second battalion have signed their names to the sheet, and those in the first battalion are urged to do likewise.

This is the first time in the history of the university that the military department has attempted to take the R. O. T. C. unit to an out-of-town game, and they are very desirous that every cadet go.

Garden in Rear of Art Center Now Completed

Sun-dial, Fountain and Flag-stone Walks Make Attractive Spot

Work is now finished on the rear quadrangle of the Art Center, which has been made into a formal sunken garden, the central feature of which is a pool and fountain located in the middle and reached by four flag-stone walks.

At the east of the pool a sun-dial has been placed and to the west a bird bath. The terrace at the northern part of the garden has been made attractive by the planting of shrubs, poplars and many hardy perennials. If there are sufficient funds a pergola will be placed by the theater.

The garden has been planned so that it will be attractive in all seasons, as the flowers are of the kind that will bloom in the spring and fall, while the evergreens will brighten the winter days. There will also be plants in summer in order that the summer school students may have advantage of the garden. Stone benches have been placed in several places in the garden.

The present entrance is through the Romney Theater, but another is to be made through the Art Center.

RELIGIOUS DISCUSSION

(By Albert R. Perkins)
THE CHURCH

Have you ever stopped to think what the Church is? Sometime in your life you have thought of it as divinely given and to your thinking there was nothing like it. There are people who think it was not touched by the hand of human ingenuity, and that no hand ought to touch it. Notwithstanding these attitudes you can see the finger of human genius all over the Church.

To the average man today who stands on the outside looking at the Church he wants to see in it a social institution serving society to its fullest capacity and usually he doesn't care one thing about ecclesiastical put forth from the Christian Church then most people look on with respect. This is the end of all the aims of the Christian Church, the production of Christian personality. If it fails in this, then its mission will lose its influence with the coming generations, but if it puts forth Christian character in its finest sense then the Church will always have a place in the thinking of real thoughtful men.

The Church exists to deal with persons, as religious persons, that they might become like God and this earth like Heaven. This, I think, everyone will admit is in the future, but the Church with a true program, with a true purpose is driving in that direction.

The ultimate purpose then is: God-like men and women in the world of God's will. The program of the Church, then is: to reach all men in all their lives to the end that this purpose may be realized. The process is: developing this Godlike life according to the laws of that life. Thinking of the Church in its true mission, rather than in the light of its weakness, it ought to hold a challenge for every life.

of an all-A standing, a fur coat for Christmas or possibly a date with the star of the football game, had peacefully blotted out the cares of co-ed life from her consciousness.

And then came a disturbance. From below came the sound of a raising window and with this came awakening. With awakening came consciousness—with consciousness came the vision of a man crawling in the kitchen window. (How in the heck was she to know it was a policeman?)

A blood-curdling yell, such sounds as accompany the barking of girlish shins on things to be found in a darkened room and a slamming door, marked her progress from the room to parts unknown.

Came Dawn
Well, came dawn and all was quiet on the premises. The little birds returned to their accustomed perches and warbled sweetly as the sisters, restored to their slumbers, slept once again.

"Gee Whiz," remarked John Freshman, as he went in search of another sorority house Sunday afternoon, "I sure did make a failure in there," and he indicated to his brother the house he was just leaving. Why she yawned twice while I was telling her what the prof said to me, but looks like all the Alpha Xi's are sleepy.

age can not tell who will even be able to play today. If the injury jinx continues to follow Kentucky throughout the rest of the season as it has so far, it will be doubtful if Coach Gamage will have enough men to finish the season.

The game tomorrow will be the opening Southern Conference tilt for Washington and Lee and the second fray in the league for the Blue and White.

The Generals will arrive today and may hold a short workout on Stoll field this afternoon. Only a short session will be given the Blue and White charges, this consisting of signal drill and passing.

Coach Gamage has drilled the men all week defensively and has been developing his would-be punters. Jim Pence or Paul Jenkins will do the punting.

The probable lineup will be: Summers and Lyons, ends; VanMeter and Drury, tackles; Captain Wert and Walters, guards; Pence, center; Phipps, fullback; Jenkins and Griffith, halfbacks; Portwood, quarterback.

Since graduation Mr. Stone has been connected with the Southern Pacific Railroad. Ray Stoesser, national president of Triangle, visited the Kentucky chapter last Friday and remained over until Sunday.

BURNING AWNING CAUSE OF FIRE SCARE IN GYM

Excitement was caused Saturday afternoon during the returns of the Florida-Kentucky game in the gym when fire destroyed an awning on the outside of the building.

Smoke from the awning began ascending past the windows where several hundred students were watching the Grid-graph.

Prompt work on the part of Felix Dickerson, an employee of the university, prevented the spread of flames before the fire department arrived.

Maury Crutcher, of the department of buildings and grounds, when asked about the fire said that a carelessly tossed cigarette had caused the damage, which amounted to about fifty dollars.

mechanical help needed for the show. The city has donated the use of the auditorium, according to the announcement of Commissioner Wood G. Dunlap.

The sale of tickets began this week and an effort will be made to sell all tickets before the date set for the entertainment.

In previous years many ways have been devised to raise funds for the expenses of the band. The vaudeville plan will become an annual event if this first effort in this direction is successful.

Approximately $3,000 will be needed to send the band on the three big trips. Of this amount Suky circle has promised to contribute $1,500 of the amount if the band raises the remainder.
